LOCAL NEWS.

The S. S. Australia sails at noon for San Francisco, the mail closing at ten.

Col. Thompson has our thanks for a budget of Washington and Southern papers.

Halemauiau on a small scale was mimicked yesterday, in the burning of rubbish in the cellar of the late Sautors' Home.

A beautiful specimen of the hawk moth, with a proboscis several inches long, was caught and let off again on Fort street yesterday.

An outgoing schooner went ashore on the reef, between the Bell and Spar buoys last evening, but we have been unable to learn her name.

A dead hog thrown in the harbor at Brewer's wharf was floating round amongst the vessels yesterday and emitting a terrible stench.

The saloon keepers are trying to combine in an association for mutual protection against beats and unlicensed liquor sellers.

"The Christ-child and the children of Fort-street Church and congregation," will be the subject at the prayer meeting in that church to-night.

Many people visited and admired the great cyclorama of Kilanea last night. It seems hard for everybody to leave off gazing at the sublime picture.

Two Portuguese men gave an amusing Damon and Pythias exhibition at the corner of Fort and Queen streets yesterday, embracing, hugging and caressing each other for several minutes.

Mr. Charles Brown, who was injured severely in one of the brake accidents in Nuuanu Valley last Sunday, is back to his duties at Messrs. Hollister & Co.'s drugstore, but suffers with a very sore eye.

A lady went into a store last evening to do shopping, and left a young child in her carriage toying with the reins, while the horse was never fastened. Comment might have to be ungentle and therefore is waived.

Dr. Dorman, evangelist, of New Haven, Conn., who spoke to an interested audience last Sunday evening at the Lyceum, will conduct the meeting at the same place this evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Officers of the Myrtle Boat Club for the ensuing year are: President, W. C. King; Vice President, M. D. Monarrat; Secretary, A. M. Brown; Treasurer, C. T. Wilder; Captain, James I. Torbert; Trustees, W. C. Wilder, Jr.; A. W. Carter and Alex. Robinson.

Mr. Henry Smith has been elected one of the St. Andrew's Cathedral church wardens. He has also been elected a trustee of the Cathedral congregation, in place of the late Mr. Thomas Brown, Registrar. Mr. Smith is becoming one of the most indispensable useful citizens of Honolulu, holding high office in the Church, the Supreme Court, the Fire Department, and various benevolent bodies.

Police Court.

Before Justice Bickerton, Tuesday. Kimo forfeited $6 bail for drunkenness.

J. Morand, same offense, did not have $6 and was sent over for hard labor to that amount.

Moses Pala, assault and battery on Kimo, fined $9. Molaa, same offense on same person, 15 days' hard labor and $3.20 costs.

A native was discharged from disturbing quiet of the night.

The eight men from Waianae, charged with assault and battery on three Chinamen, were remanded till to-day for judgment.

SIDE LIGHTS.

The "Pink of Key West" at McCarthy's.

A joyful throng are after those mince pies at the Club House dining rooms.

Messrs. Thos. May & Co. give timely notice that their store will be closed on Christmas Day.

Mr. C. O. Berger has a lot of Havana cigars to sell, but cannot insure them against fire. He has fireproof safes, however, on sale.

Mr. Cassidy's invention would be useful now in saving the telephone operators from being overworked in ringing up Mr. Horn for his celebrated mince pies. Still, the people will have to go to the store, anyway, to have a look at that beautiful cake in the window and select bon bon packages for the children's stockings. He has tons of candy to sell in any style, variety or quantity.

SUPREME COURT.

Probate Cases.

The following probate cases came up yesterday before Chief Justice Judd.

In re estate of Wm. B. Wright. Application by the widow that Hon. W. C. Parke be appointed administrator of the estate. Application granted on proof of the intestacy of the deceased. Amount of bond to be hereafter determined upon, there being proof of the insolvency of the estate. In all probability the administrator will apply to the Court to sell the realty, as the personal property will not be sufficient to pay off the debts. The widow appeared on her own behalf.

In re estate of Keoni Kapu. Application by the widow that she be appointed administratrix of her husband's estate. No one appeared to contest. The estimated value of property is about $6,000, consisting of two pieces of real estate in Honolulu and two in Waialua on this island, and some cattle. Deceased left as heirs two sons who were present in Court and consented to the appointment of their mother to administer upon their father's property. Application granted petitioner to file bond of $250, which is a limited amount owing to there being no debts due by the estate. Hon. J. I. Kaulukou for the application.

In re estate of Thomas Brown, late Registrar of Conveyances. Hearing in an application for probate of the will. No one appeared to contest. The will was admitted to probate and letters testamentary issued to Mrs. M. A. Brown, executrix, without bond, the will exempting her from giving such. The will devises all of the property, real, personal and mixed to said Mrs. Brown and her heirs forever. Value of the estate is about $13,000. The will was executed some sixteen years ago and attested by Mr. C. T. Gulick and C. A. Castle, who were then in official relations with the deceased. Said C. A. Castle having died since witnessing the will, his signature had to be proved before the Court by the testimony of said Gulick and Godfrey Brown. The Hon. Cecil Brown appeared on behalf of the application.

DISCHARGE FROM BANKRUPTCY.

In re bankruptcy of Thomas K. Clarke, His Honor the Chief Justice administered the oath of the bankrupt prior to granting him his certificate of discharge from all his debts. Discharge granted. Hon Cecil Brown for the bankrupt.

EQUITY.

Before Judge Preston. Hop Sing et al vs. Kum On et al. Bill in equity for foreclosure of mortgage, Dr. J. S. McGrew being the mortgagee in interest. C. W. Ashford and W. A. Kinney for plaintiffs; P. Neumann for defendants. The evidence was all taken and argument postponed till Thursday morning.

Academic School for Girls.

The Academic School for Girls has completed four years of work. The school will re-open upon January 3rd, 1887. These advantages are claimed for this school: First, it is select in character. Second, it is a place where real work is required. Third, it is a school where attention is paid to the advance of each individual scholar. It is select because only girls are received, and their number is limited to twenty-five. For work—the pupils are thoroughly drilled in two important matters, too often slighted, that is, reading and spelling. Pupils study thoroughly Ancient and Modern History, Geography, English Composition and Grammar. In mathematics the pupils are taken from Fractions in Arithmetic, through Algebra, Geometry and Trigonometry. Class instructions will be given in vocal music and drawing. French and Latin are also taught, with out extra charge, to those who desire to study these languages. A few boarding pupils can be received. Arrangements can be made for these to study and practise piano music. Applications for admission should be made to Mrs. E. B. C. Wallace, 190 Nuuanu avenue, Honolulu.

A NOVEL STEAMBOAT.

Mr. James A. Dower has recently built and launched the hull of a steamboat, that is going to be a real curiosity in these waters. Yesterday the craft was at Messrs. Allen & Robinson's wharf, where Mr. Thos. Hughes, engineer of the Government steam dredge, was putting the engines in place, while Mr. Dower was forwarding the carpenter work toward completion. The craft is a light draught scow expressly for the shallow waters toward Ewa, built to the order of Mr. Mark P. Robinson with a special view to the freighting of bananas from his large plantation to this port. It is built in the style of the steamers that make a picturesque showing on the shallow rivers of other countries. The propulsion will be effected with a stern paddle wheel, operated by a ten-horse power steam engine on each side of the boat, with 9 1/2 in. by 24 in. cylinders and 24 in. stroke. A locomotive type of boiler, of 25 horse power will furnish the steam, being with the engines the manufacture of Hendy Bros., San Francisco.

The boat is 72 feet long over all with a maximum width of 20 feet. She is very light built with 1 1/2 in. plank, yet very strong with diagonal bracing. Three jackscrews will lift her up, and her draught will be only six inches on an even keel light, and 10 or 12 inches loaded with 30 or 40 tons. She will be roofed all over and have seats round the sides for passengers, adapting her nicely for excursions to "that beautiful sheet of water," Pearl Harbor. The bottom of the scow will be sheathed and get a coat of paraffine paint, said to be one of the latest and best preventives of the ravages of worms. Some owners of trading schooners are awaiting with interest the result of the trial of this point.

The pilot house will be above the awning deck. A water tank is placed in the bow forward, more for the sake of ballasting than anything else. The craft will be ready for business the first of the year, when probably members of the press will be invited to join the trial trip party. There will likely not be much difficulty about the engines working well, for Mr. Hughes has had much experience in fitting the machinery of similar steamboats in Central America.

The Portuguese Paper.

The Luzo Hawaiiano issued a very bright number on Saturday, both in news and editorials. The laborers who, after completing their contracts on plantations last month, are coming to Honolulu in search of work, are discouraged and advised to remain where they are sure of getting employment. There is also an article on the Portuguese here as a class, showing that they get the consideration they command by their merit and intelligence, and that they must keep up with times and places by improving their education.

The Luzo reproduces several articles on the situation of these islands, regarding it from a Portuguese point of view, indifferent to politics but interested in the material position of the country. Among the items are news of the drowning of two Portuguese at Papahau, Laupahoehoe, in crossing a gulch, and instructions to the Portuguese who are not legally required to pay taxes accruing since July 1st. The correspondence continues to increase, and Father Clement, of the Roman Catholic mission, has an interesting article on schools and churches built for the Portuguese population. Amateurs of the supernatural had better read about a new occupation for Christmas eve.

The Samoan Mission.

Mr. Henry F. Poor has been designated as Secretary to Hon. John E. Bush, Ambassador to Samoa. He receives six months' leave of absence from the duties of Postal Savings Bank Clerk. Mr. David Moehonua, private in the King's Guards and pitcher for the Hawaii Baseball Club, goes with the Ambassador as Aid-de-camp. Perhaps by teaching the Samoans improved military tactics and the American national game, David may produce a more lasting impression on the future of Samoa than any other member of the expedition. The Ambassador departs, it is said, by the S. S. Zealandia due here on Saturday.

The English syndicate, that offered to lay an inter-island cable, wanted the exclusive rights for operating such cables between these islands; but the Hawaiian Government said in effect: "No, you don't Johnny; not this season!"

Mr. N. S. Sachs' store will be open every evening this week until nine o'clock.

The Best Tonic.

Mr. Henry Billings, Washington, D. C., writes: "I have used your Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky for medicinal purposes. As a tonic I consider it superior to the hundreds of concoctions which are now flooding the land as a tonic liquor."

Try Martine's Cider. It is absolutely pure. Macfarlane & Co., agents.

Reflections.

(From the Washington Post.)

Wanted a vacant head for the crown of Bulgaria.

The Japanese Minister speaks nine languages. This takes the Kuki.

Jack Sharp is only fifty-four. He's young enough to steal some more.

A man named Leikysyonsquarkiski was found dead in a Michigan town the other day. The Polés should be put under ground.

Waldemar's father positively refuses to let him have that throne. European parents are not so indulgent to children as Americans are.

Dr. Holmes objects because the printers made him say "dirtiest" instead of "daintiest." This shows how fastidious he is getting in his old age.

One of his body-servants who still waits in a Richmond restaurant affirms that George Washington always ate peas with a knife. It could not be otherwise. For they had only two-tined iron forks then, and the tines were half an inch apart.

No old e'er felt the subtle poke With good opinion of the yoke.

The Panama Canal.

Here are the latest statistics of the Panama Canal:

In July, 869,000 cubic meters of earth were excavated, and the average for the rest of the year will be 100,000 cubic meters monthly. In the last meeting of the shareholders of the canal company, De Lesseps promised that the excavation of 1886 should be 12,000,000 cubic meters; for 1887, 24,000,000 cubic meters; for 1888 and one-half of 1889, 54,000,000. This would make 90,000,000 of meters dug out from the 31st of December, 1885, which, added to the 18,000,000 dug out before, would complete the 108,000,000 of cubic meters estimated. According to this calculation the entire excavation will be completed by the first of July, 1889.

A Dudine Answered.

It isn't always best to be entirely satisfied with everything.

"Mother," said a young lady recently, "how came you to marry such a very plain, unpretentious man as father?"

"If I had known that his daughter would ever have asked such a question I presume I should have hesitated?"

"Then you are not satisfied?"

"Not entirely. I'd most wish that our daughters had been all sons."

Hartford Post.

"As a true tonic, effective invigorator and genuine appetizer, Duffy's Malt Whisky is unexcelled."

Try Martine's Cider. It is absolutely pure. Macfarlane & Co., agents.
